Notes for Applications

1. Please read the Life Membership Policy (attached to the DBACT Membership Policy) before filling in this form.
2. Note that the nominee does not need to meet all the criteria. The aim of assessing a nomination for Life Membership is to establish how the person has provided conspicuous and/or distinguished service, and any nomination will be considered in a holistic manner.
3. The application shouldn't just be a list of dates and activities. It should illustrate how the nominee's efforts have really been above and beyond the ordinary.
4. The nomination is to be placed into a sealed envelope, marked "Nomination for Life Membership", and then placed within another envelope, to be delivered to the DBACT Secretary; the sealed envelope will be handed onto the DBACT President.
