

Simon Roskvist

Open Women's Head Coach #7

Simon Roskvist was first appointed as the Open Women's Head Coach in 2001. During this time he coached 176 games, 50 international and 126 tour games.

In 2004 Simon coached the Open Women to a Silver Medal at the Athens Olympic Games. This is the highest finish for Australia at any Olympic Games.

Simon coached at the following international tournaments:

- 2001 Trans-Tasman Challenge Victoria
- 2001 US Cup, Hawaii
- 2001 Canada Cup
- 2001 New Zealand Test Series
- 2002 Japan tour, Victoria
- 2002 South Pacific Classic, Perth
- 2002 US Cup, Hawaii
- 2002 Women's World Championship, Canada
- 2002 Japan Cup
- 2003 Asia/Oceania Olympic Qualifier, Sydney
- 2003 Canada Cup
- 2003 Pacific Challenge, San Francisco
- 2003 Tour of Japan
- 2003 International Tri-Series, Hobart
- 2004 Blacktown International Challenge, Sydney
- 2004 Canada Cup
- 2004 Champions Cup, California
- 2004 Pre-Olympic tour of Italy
- 2004 Athens Olympic Games