

Ngairé Huston (Qld)

Ngairé Huston has made a significant contribution to softball in Australia over a period of 23 years. She is a Level 6 Statistician and the current Softball Australia Chief Statistician since 2012.

She has been a member of the National Scoring Committee since 1995 and served as a member of the National Quality Assurance Committee and Manager of the Level 4 Scoring exam since 2005,

In 2013 Ngairé was inducted into the Softball Australia Hall of Fame having participated in open international competition for at least six years, including at least two ISF Open World Championships. She has always demonstrated the highest personal standard of sportsmanship and integrity.

AWARDS

- 2013 Softball Australia Hall of Fame
- 2018 Softball Australia Life Member

TOURNAMENTS

- 1993 IV Junior Men's Softball World Championship, Auckland, New Zealand
- 1997 V Junior Men's Softball World Championship, St John's, Canada
- 2000 X Men's Softball World Championship, East London, South Africa Open
- 2004 XI Men's Softball World Championship, Christchurch, New Zealand