

INCLUSION POLICY

APPROVED BY BOARD ON: Wednesday, 26 February 2014

LAST UPDATED Thursday, 19 December 2013

Introduction

Social inclusion is about making sure everyone is able to participate as valued, respected and contributing members of society. It is also about the acceptance and equal treatment of members of the wider community regardless of their gender, gender identity, sexuality, age, disability, religious or cultural background, or other attributes that may lead to people feeling excluded or isolated. This policy provides Hockey Victoria's (HV) position on the inclusion of all people.

Rationale

Sport can play a powerful role in:

- Contributing to the development of healthier communities and individuals
- Increasing social connection and shaping acceptable social norms
- Promoting multiculturalism

Research shows that lower than average participation rates in some population groups, compounded by discrimination when participating in sport. It is important that HV takes an active leadership role in supporting and encouraging diverse participation in all aspects of Hockey, including in coaching, officiating and administrative roles.

Principles

This policy is based on

- Inclusion principles - access, participation and support
- Essence of Australian Sport principles – fair play, respect, responsibility and safety
- Requirements under anti-discrimination and equal opportunity laws

This policy promotes:

- Social and community values
- The importance of valuing both participation and competition
- A respectful approach that values difference and diversity between people
- Treatment of people with respect, dignity and courtesy
- Good behaviour on and off the field (in line with HV Codes of Conduct and HV Rules & Regulations)
- Equal opportunity and a fair go for all members

Policy Coverage

This policy covers all HV areas of authority and applies to everyone involved in the activities of HV including committee and Directors, staff, volunteers, players, coaches, administrators, parents and stakeholders.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to help HV take action to promote inclusion and prevent and manage problems associated with discrimination within Hockey. Our aim is to provide an environment where all people feel:

- Welcome
- Represented
- Included in decision making
- Able to participate
- Safe and free from discrimination, bullying, harassment and vilification.

Position Statement

HV embraces diversity and difference and is committed to providing healthy sporting environments that are safe, inclusive, accessible and equitable. This commitment includes a focussed approach to actively encouraging and supporting the inclusion of, people of different genders, age, ethnicity, ability, religion, income, sexuality and race in all aspects of our sport. Our approach will be meaningful to each individual and equitable to all participants involved in hockey.

HV's Commitment

HV has adopted the following strategies to ensure its commitment to being an inclusive organisation. HV will:

- Actively identify and reduce barriers to participation for minority and under-represented populations
- Consult with the community groups, affiliates and make strong relationships with other organisation to facilitate inclusive practices and remove barriers to participation
- Ensure minority populations are given the opportunity to participate in all aspect of hockey.
- Provide opportunities for all in coaching, officiating and leadership positions.
- Continue to provide Member Protection training for HV staff and affiliates
- Review processes for recruitment onto HV subcommittees, boards, paid position, volunteer positions
- Require our members to undertake practices that actively encourage and support participation by all, ensuring diversity is recognised, respected, valued and welcomed.
